Fall Programs Are Here

Growing Up In Perry

Thursday, September 9 at 7 p.m.

Maureen Brown Heffernan, author and Executive Director of the Coastal Maine Botanical Gardens returns to her roots to speak about gardening. She is the granddaughter of Frank Brown, who owned nursery properties near the current Perry Public Library building. Her childhood in Perry, so filled with gardens and plants, was a strong influence on Heffernan and her career choice. Books will be available for sale and signing.

Understanding Medicare

Wednesday, September 15 at 2 p.m.

Confused about Medicare? An Ohio Senior Health Insurance Information Program (OSHIIP) counselor from the Council on Aging will be here to help you navigate through Medicare and understand your choices. Whether you are new to Medicare or currently on Medicare, this presentation will give you unbiased information enabling you to make an informed decision.

Children's Department Grant

Congratulations to the Children's Department for being awarded a $3000 Youth Literacy Grant from the Dollar General Corporation. The grant will support the Reading Patch Club and other literacy related initiatives at the library.

Children's Program Spotlight

Lego Block Party

Saturday, September
25 at 1 p.m.

Drop in and try out the library's new collection of LEGOS! All ages are welcome to come for an afternoon of building and creating. Registration is appreciated.

Please do not bring LEGOS from home. All creations will be put on display at the library following the program. A monthly library LEGO club for kids in grades K-5 is in the works...stay tuned!

New T-N-T Club

Fridays at 3:45 p.m.

Our new group for tweens and teens, grades 5-10. The group meets once per month for crafts, snacks and games. This month the meeting will be September 24 to make a Fabric Pencil Holder. Registration is required.
