Early Literacy Extras:

- ☼ Talk about the word “Duckling” sound out the different parts of the word “duck-ling” – say them separately and then together again, first slowly and then faster.

Clap once for each syllable of the word. Do the same thing with words like “gosling, chicken, rooster.”

- ☼ Help your child think of words that rhyme with “goose” like “moose, juice, caboose, loose,” – make up silly rhymes with these words. Try rhyming “chick” too!
- ☼ Help your child think of words that start with the “G”- “Guh” sound as in goose (give, gate, gift, guitar, gorilla, goat, garbage) and the “D”- “Duh” sound as in duck (dog, dinner, daddy, doll, dig, dinosaur, dish, dime, door, dump)
- ☼ Help your child think of other names for baby animals (colt, calf, kitten, puppy, piglet, fawn, eaglet, owlet, kid, tadpole, kit, joey, cub, pinkie, lamb, spiderling). Learning these names is a great way to expand your child’s vocabulary! Try this website for a wonderful list of animal parents and babies.
<http://www.enchantedlearning.com/subjects/animals/Animalbabies.shtml>
- ☼ Make a matching game! – Match pictures of animal parents and their babies
Here are some ready-made games to print out http://www.monthome.com/download/animals_mother&baby.pdf
<http://www.scribd.com/doc/9688365/Mommy-Baby-Animal-Match>
- ☼ Very young children are fascinated by books featuring infants, baby animals, and facial expressions. However, it isn't really the book that builds early literacy skills, it's how the book is used. Be enthusiastic and get your child involved when reading books together. You will both enjoy this special time you share together!
- ☼ Because songs automatically break down words into smaller sounds through tones, singing with your child is one of the best ways develop early literacy skills. Songs and rhymes will also help your child to identify patterns, like rhyming words, which will help them learn to read. Try the songs and rhymes on the following pages.

Songs and rhymes to share:

If I could have a Windmill from "Great Big Hits" by Sharon Lois & Bram

Five Little Ducks

5 little ducks went out one day
(hold up 5 fingers)
Over the hills and far away,
(arc hand up and over – shade eyes)
Mother (or Father) duck called
quack quack quack,
(clap hands like a duck's beak)
And 4 little ducks came waddling back.
(hold up 4 fingers)

Repeat with ...4 little ducks went out one day ...

1 little duck went out one day
Over the hills and far away,
Mother (or Father) duck called
quack quack quack,
But no little ducks came waddling back.
Mother (or Father) duck went out one day
Over the hills and far away,
Mommy (daddy) duck called
QUACK! QUACK! QUACK!,
(clap with whole arm)
And 5 little ducks came waddling back.

THE LITTLE WHITE DUCK

There's a little white duck
Sitting in the water.
A little white duck,
Doing what he ought–ter.
He took a bite of a lilly pad.
Flapped his wings
and he said, "I'm glad,
I'm a little white duck
Sitting in the water."
Quack, Quack, Quack!

Goosey, goosey, gander

Goosey, goosey, gander
Whither shall I wander,
Upstairs and downstairs
And in my lady's chamber.

Counting Out Rhyme

Hinty, minty, cuty, corn, (clap to rhythm)
Apple seed and apple thorn,
Wire, briar, limber lock
Three geese in a flock. (hold up three fingers)
One flew east, and one flew west. (point to the right, then left)
One flew over the cuckoo's nest. (fly hand high right to left)

Stretch, Stretch

Stretch, stretch away up high (reach arms up)
On your tiptoes, reach the sky. (stand on tiptoes)
See the bluebirds flying high. (wave hands)
Now bend down and touch your toes. (bend and touch toes)
Now sway as the North Wind blows. (sway body back and forth)
Waddle as the gander goes! (walk and waddle)

Mr. Duck and Mr. Goose

Mr. Duck went out to walk (hold up thumb)
One day in pleasant weather
He met Mr. Goose along the way (hold up other thumb)
And there they talked together (hold thumbs next to each other)
Honk, Honk, Honk (wiggle one thumb)
Quack, quack, quack (wiggle other thumb)
Good bye! (wiggle one thumb)
Good bye! (wiggle other thumb)
And they both walked back (hide thumbs behind back)

FIVE LITTLE DUCKS

Five little ducks, that I once knew,
Fat ones, skinny ones, fair ones too
But the one little duck with a feather on his back,
He led the others with a quack, quack, quack.
Quack, quack, quack, quack, quack, quack,
He led the others with a quack, quack, quack.

Down to the water, they would go,
Wibble, wabble, wibble, wabble, to and fro.
But the one little duck with a feather on his back,
He led the others with a quack, quack, quack.
Quack, quack, quack, quack, quack, quack,
He led the others with a quack, quack, quack

Home from the river they would come,
Wibble, wabble, wibble, wabble, ho hum hum.
He led the others with a quack, quack, quack
Quack, quack, quack, quack, quack, quack,
He led the others with a quack, quack, quack

OLD MOTHER GOOSE

Old Mother Goose, when
She wanted to wander,
Would ride through the air
On a very fine gander.

Duck in the Water by Meish Goldish

Duck in the water, quack, quack, quack!
Soft, white feathers on your back, back, back!
Duck in the water, splash and splish!
Dip in your bill and catch those fish!
Duck out of water, walk on land.
Your webbed feet make it hard to stand!
Waddle with your family, waddle in a pack.
Duck out of water, quack, quack, quack!

Ten Little Ducklings

Ten little ducklings,
Dash, dash, dash!
Jumped in the duck pond,
Splash, splash, splash!
When the mother called them,
"Quack, quack, quack!"
Ten little ducklings,
Swam right back.
